Hungrytown is the Vermont-based folk-country musical duo of singer/guitarist Rebecca Hall and singer/multi-instrumentalist Ken Anderson .

Contemporary American folk music, with an oldtimey Appalachian sound.

Rebecca and her husband Ken tour full time throughout the US, Canada and Europe, and are now making their first forays into New Zealand. Rebecca has developed a reputation for crafting classic, instantly memorable songs, weaving modern themes into traditional song structures. Ken has a remarkable gift for musical harmony and for crafting rich arrangements.

"Their music mixes the snow of their home in Vermont, the dew on the grass of a cool summer morning in the Appalachians, the hard-scrabble grittiness and pluck of common folk the world over, together with the melancholy of lost loves, broken hearts and shattered dreams distilling it into an intoxicating, hauntingly seductive blend that you always want more of. It is folk music with substance and style."
CDS available : "Hungrytown" and "Any Forgotten Thing"

Local talent!

In April we have as our guests DAVID TRAIL and FRIENDS.

David is a singer/songwriter as well as the owner of local recording studio Tsunami Sound. ( Several club members have made personal recordings at Tsunami Sounds.)

An accomplished guitarist with many beautiful self-penned songs to share. David will be accompanied by 2-3 other performers, details to be announced later.

Next Acoustic Night is on March 22nd. Scottish Society Hall. 7:30pm. $2 entry and please put your name on the whiteboard as you arrive.

The theme(optional) for this night is "Something New" - a song, a new line-up, new instrument. Acoustic Night Committee would like to encourage people with forming duos or groups to sing with others, as happened successfully last month. ( This is entirely up to individuals, optional as always.)

If anyone would like to take a turn at being door host or compere on club nights, please be in touch - annemc@ihug.co.nz (door teams) or asalter@ihug.co.nz (compere list)
